

Based on Carl and Amy's conversation, fill in the blanks with the words from the box. Some words may repeat.

analyze / assess / compare / contrast / differentiate / distinguish / evaluate / identify

1. Carl: We need to _____ and _____ the most important elements for a good quality of life.
2. Amy: We should _____ the key elements, like health, happiness, safety, relationships, education, employment, financial security, access to healthcare, leisure time, and community involvement.
3. Carl: Right. Let's start by trying to _____ which ones are more important.
4. Amy: I agree, but we should also _____ happiness and relationships.
5. Carl: That's true. Let's _____ health and financial security.
6. Amy: Good point. We can also _____ access to healthcare in different communities.
7. Carl: For our discussion, we need to _____ each aspect carefully.
8. Amy: I will _____ how living in a safe environment affects happiness and well-being.
9. Carl: However, I would _____ education as a long-term solution to reduce inequalities.
10. Amy: That will help us _____ the real situation in different countries.
11. Carl: I need to _____ what makes me feel happiest. I would _____ education and financial security as very important for my future.
12. Amy: Then we can _____ our situations and _____ how income, health, and social support affect our quality of life.
13. Carl: And we should also _____ how inequalities can be reduced, for example, by improving access to healthcare and education.