

PRESENT PERFECT - ERROR CORRECTION

FOOTBALL WORLD CUP EDITION

Each sentence below contains two mistakes: one in the verb form and one in the time expression. Rewrite the sentences correctly in the Present Perfect.

1) Argentina win the World Cup already in 2022.

2) The striker has scored three goals since two matches.

3) Germany has just win the match yet.

4) The goalkeeper saved two penalties for last night.

5) France have already lose the final for 2022.

6) The coach has announce the squad just yesterday.

7) France has win the World Cup since 2018.

8) The team has yet scored four goals for the tournament.

9) Spain have already play three matches since last week.

10) The referee has blow the whistle just for the second half.

11) England has not win the trophy already.

12) The fans have celebrate the victory since last night already.

