The Perfect Pet for You - Interpretation Questions

1. Interpretation Question:

What does the author mean when they say buying a pet is like 'choosing a new friend'?

Options: a) Pets must match your lifestyle b) Pets are expensive c) Pets like to play games

Choose your answer:

2. Interpretation Question:

Why does the author mention that hamsters run on their wheels at night?

Options: a) They are active when people sleep b) They like music c) They need big

Choose your answer:

3. Interpretation Question:

What does the author want readers to understand about reptiles needing heat lamps and UVB lights?

Options: a) They are simple pets b) They need special care c) They can live anywhere

Choose yor answer:

4. Interpretation Question:

Why does the author ask readers to think about their family's habits before choosing a pet?

Options: a) To match the pet's needs with the family's lifestyle b) To choose the cutest pet c) To buy many pets

Choose your answer:

LIVEWORKSHEETS