

Part A, Activity 2: Combine the Sentences: Join the two sentences using who, which, or that.

1. A general practitioner is a doctor.
He treats common illnesses.

2. A cardiologist is a specialist.
He diagnoses heart conditions.

3. An MRI scanner is a machine.
It produces detailed images.

4. A nurse is a healthcare professional.
He or she monitors a patient's condition.

5. A paediatric specialist is a doctor.
He works with young patients.

6. A rehabilitation programme is a treatment plan.
It helps patients recover after surgery.
