- 2 These people all want to try a new experience in the city where they live. Below there are descriptions of eight things to do. Decide which experience (A–H) would be the most suitable for each person (1–5).

Tip: Start by reading the descriptions of the people carefully. Next, read through the texts and underline any information which matches that in the descriptions. Finally, match the people with the texts.

1

Charlotte likes cooking and finds it relaxing, but is looking for a new challenge. She already knows how to make lots of different types of food, but would like to learn how to make different types of drinks.

2

Steve has lived in the same city all his life and always goes to the same places, so he's quite bored of it. He would like to travel and discover new places, but he doesn't have free time to do it.

3

Susan is interested in learning more about how to protect the environment. She feels disappointed when she sees how much rubbish there is on the streets of her city. She especially loves animals and loves learning all about them.

4

Joanna is really keen on fashion. She's been feeling bored with her appearance lately and would like to try something completely different. She doesn't really like big events and would like to spend some time experimenting with her appearance.

5

Higor feels annoyed when he sees how dirty the city is. He doesn't have many friends, but he would like to meet new people with similar interests. He's also interested in protecting the environment.

New experiences to try in the city

A Free fashion festival

This weekend, St. Helen's Park is filled with clothes, models and high fashion. Come along in the afternoon to see all the exciting, fashionable clothes we have to show. There will also be celebrity appearances from top designers and models, who will be signing copies of their books and speaking to members of the public.

B Become a barista!

Do you like nice coffee, but feel it's too expensive? Would you like to become king or queen of the coffee shop? Why not come along and learn how to make your own with this afternoon course? From sweet, spicy Mexican coffee to Indian coffee – learn how to make them all and impress your friends!

C Organise a local clean-up

Are you disappointed with all the litter in your area? Do you hate seeing rubbish in the street? Then get your friends together and organise a local clean-up group. You can also make new friends. We can send you bags and gloves, as well as information on how to recycle the things you find.

D Hidden city

If you're looking to have an adventure this summer, we offer tours to all those little places you never knew existed in the city. Hidden parks, specialist shops and quiet cafés are just a few of the places we'll help you to discover. We know where they all are – and so should you!

E Makeover time

Come and have a makeover! If you've been feeling worn-out and scruffy recently, then come and spend a few hours with us. Our stylists can give you advice on what clothes to wear. We can even paint your nails or dye your hair. So what are you waiting for? Come and give it a go.

F Rescue centre

Visit Tynedale Animal Shelter and find out about what we do. We have over 100 different species of endangered animals who we've rescued from captivity. Come and make friends with them today and discover how you can help protect them. This is a really fun day out and a truly enjoyable experience.

G Facing your fears

Are you afraid of heights? Visit our phobia centre, where we work with you to boost your confidence. We can also help with a fear of flying. At the end of the day with us, you get to climb our tower and we promise you'll get a buzz out of it!

H Cooking course

Does the thought of cooking make you feel stressed? If so, then our four-hour intensive cooking course is just for you. We show you how to make a range of delicious dishes from around the world and also give tips on what drinks go well with them. Challenge yourself to become a top chef!
