B. CLASSWORK

Rapunzel

Once upon a time, there lived a man and his wife. Their house was next door to a witch who had a beautiful garden. The wife wanted to eat the lettuces in the witch's garden.

One day, the husband decided to steal some of the lettuces for his wife but the witch caught him. The witch told the husband that he must give his baby to her in return for the lettuces. The man was so scared that he agreed.

The witch took the little girl away and named her Rapunzel. The witch locked Rapunzel away in a tower in the middle of the forest. There, Rapunzel's golden hair grew longer and longer. The witch visited Rapunzel and would call her to let down her hair and the witch would climb up.

A handsome prince found the tower in the forest. He watched the witch come to the tower and climb Rapunzel's hair. The prince waited for the witch to leave. Then, he climbed up the tower using Rapunzel's hair. The prince visited Rapunzel every day.

The witch found out and she was angry so she made a plan. She cut Rapunzel's hair and sent her off into the forest. The witch tricked the prince and threw him out of the tower. The prince fell on some thorns and scratched his eyes. This made him blind. He wandered in the forest for a long time.

One day, the prince heard Rapunzel singing in the forest.

Rapunzel saw it was her prince and she cried with happiness. Her tears touched his eyes and he could see again. They lived happily ever after in his kingdom.
