Cultural diversity refers to the variety of traditions, customs, languages, and lifestyles that exist within different communities around the world. It encompasses the different ways people live, celebrate, communicate, and perceive the world. Embracing cultural diversity allows us to appreciate the unique qualities of each group and learn about different ways of life, making our world more colorful and interconnected.

One of the most visible aspects of cultural diversity is the range of festivals and traditions celebrated globally. From the Lunar New Year in China to Carnival in Brazil, each festival has its own unique customs, symbols, and meanings. These events often reflect the history and values of their respective cultures, offering a glimpse into what is important to their people. Participating in or learning about these celebrations helps to foster understanding and respect among different cultures.

When comparing different cultures, we can see notable differences in values and social norms. For example, Japanese culture emphasizes harmony, group cohesion, and respect for others, often prioritizing the needs of the community over individual desires. On the other hand, American culture tends to value individualism, freedom of choice, and self-expression, often encouraging people to pursue their own goals. Despite these differences, both cultures share a commitment to their own forms of respect and societal well-being, showcasing the diverse ways societies can thrive.

Maintaining cultural diversity is crucial in our rapidly globalizing world. As technology and migration bring people closer together, there is a risk of cultural homogenization, where unique traditions may fade away. By valuing and preserving cultural diversity, we not only honor our shared human heritage but also ensure that future generations can experience the richness of different persoectives and practices.

31. The word "encompasses" in paragraph 1 is CLOSEST in meaning to _____.
A. excludes B. includes C. separates D. limits

32. What is the main idea of the passage?

B. Global festivals like Lunar New Year and Carnival are the most important aspects of diversity.
C. Cultural diversity is essential for human heritage, and its preservation is crucial in a globalized world.
D. Technology and migration pose the biggest threat to all forms of cultural exchange.

33. The word "commitment " in paragraph 3 is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.
A. convenience B. encouragement C.disloyalty D. development

34. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?
A. Cultural diversity makes the world less interconnected.
B. The American culture highly prioritizes the needs of the community over individual desires.
C. All cultures around the world have completely different forms of respect and societal well-being.
D. The variety of festivals and traditions is considered one of the most visible aspects of cultural diversity.

35. Why does the passage suggest that learning about global celebrations (like Carnival) is helpful?
A. To show that these festivals are more important than daily customs.
B. Because they are the only things that reflect a culture's history.
C. Because it helps to foster understanding and respect among different cultures.
D. To prove that these events entirely contradict a culture's history and values.

36. What does the passage suggest about the risk of cultural homogenization?
A. It primarily affects languages and customs, but not lifestyles.
B. It is caused by the lack of festivals in different communities.
C. It is a potential negative consequence of technology and migration bringing people closer together.
D. It helps to honor our shared human heritage by unifying traditions.
