COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD 2

1. Complete the descriptions of the countries using the words/ phrases in the box:

architectural heritage	landmarks	influential	Mediterranean	spectacular
cultural identity	fields	iconic	melting pot	gastronomy
situated	recognized	birthplace	associated with	unspoiled
Western civilization	renowned	diverse	innovation	adventure tourism

France is located in Western Europe, and its capital city is Paris. The country is internationally _____ for its artistic achievements, fashion, and sophisticated _____. France is also famous for its impressive architecture, including _____ such as the Eiffel Tower and the Palace of Versailles. In addition, the nation possesses a rich cultural heritage and is often _____an elegant lifestyle that attracts millions of tourists every year.

Spain is _____ in Southwestern Europe, with Madrid as its capital city. The country is well known for its vibrant _____lifestyle and lively atmosphere. Spain is internationally recognized for its artistic and_____, including famous landmarks such as the Sagrada Família. It is also famous for flamenco dancing, football, and traditional customs like bullfighting. Furthermore, Spanish cuisine, including paella and tapas, plays an important role in the country's _____.

New Zealand is located in Oceania, and Wellington is its capital city. The country is widely admired for its _____landscapes, including mountains, lakes, and forests. It is a major destination for_____, offering activities such as hiking, skiing, and bungee jumping. New Zealand is also famous for its _____ nature, unique wildlife like the kiwi bird, and natural products such as Manuka honey. These features attract visitors from all around the world.

The United States is situated in North America, and its capital city is Washington, D.C. It is considered one of the most _____countries in the world due to its economic power and global impact. The nation is often described as a cultural _____ because of its _____ population and multicultural society. The United States is also a leader in technological _____, entertainment, and scientific research. In addition, it has an _____ food culture, including dishes such as hamburgers, hot dogs, and barbecue.

Greece is located in Southeastern Europe, and its capital city is Athens. The country played a central role in the development of_____, particularly in the _____ of philosophy, politics, and art. Greece is famous for its mythology, ancient history and architecture, including landmarks such as the Parthenon. The country is also known for traditional Mediterranean foods made with olive oil. Furthermore, Greece is _____as the _____of the Olympic Games.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

architectural heritage	landmarks	archeology	cultural diversity	global leader
cultural identity	fields	island nation	melting pot	urban development natural scenery	recognized	birthplace	multicultural society	preserving monuments	world-class	cutting-edge	innovation	possesses

Japan is an _____ located in East Asia, with Tokyo as its capital city. The country is famous for _____ its ancient traditions while also leading the world in _____ technology. Japan is internationally recognized for cultural symbols such as Mount Fuji, sushi, and manga. In addition, the nation is a _____in innovation, robotics, and electronic production. This unique combination of tradition and modernity makes Japan one of the most fascinating countries in the world.

Canada is situated in North America, with Ottawa as its capital city. The country is internationally admired for its breathtaking _____, including forests, mountains, and Niagara Falls. Canada is also recognized as a peaceful and welcoming_____. It is famous for products and dishes such as maple syrup and poutine, while ice hockey is considered the country's most popular sport. In addition, Canada offers a high quality of life and a harmonious balance between _____and nature.

Egypt is located in North Africa, and Cairo is its capital city. The country is considered one of the world's oldest civilizations and _____ a remarkable cultural heritage. Egypt is internationally famous for its ancient _____, including the pyramids, the Sphinx, and preserved mummies. The Nile River has also played a vital role in the country's development throughout history. Today, Egypt continues to attract visitors who are interested in history, _____, and ancient culture.

South Africa is situated in the southern region of Africa and is unique for having three capital cities: Pretoria, Cape Town, and Bloemfontein. The country is internationally recognized for its safari wildlife, beautiful national parks, and impressive landscapes. South Africa is also known for its remarkable _____and historical anti-apartheid struggles, particularly the legacy of Nelson Mandela. In addition, the country produces _____wine and attracts tourists from around the globe.

Write a similar description of Vietnam. You can use the vocabulary and expressions used above.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS