

Unit 3 Review

1 Complete the sentences with words from the box.

collective efficient mimic mood potential remain school swarm

1. Often a group is more _____ than a single person. We work better together!
2. Alonzo is organized and responsible. He is a _____ club president.
3. The way a group of fish moves in response to danger is an example of _____ behavior.
4. One fish makes a move and its closest neighbors will quickly _____ it.
5. Our emotions, or _____, can be changed by the people around us.
6. The fish that _____ by themselves may not survive.

2 Rewrite each sentence. Replace the verb with the correct form of the verb in parentheses. If the verb can be separated, you must separate it.

1. A herd of elephants depends on a female leader. (rely on)

2. She acts on any hint of danger to the members of the group. (respond to)

3. Iain Couzin studies other kinds of animal groups. (look into)

4. He wondered why locusts form swarms, and he found out the answer. (figure out)

5. He believes in collaboration, so he discusses his ideas with his team. (talk about)

6. Could the results of his research on army ants relate to humans? (apply to)
