

English for children

EXERCISE 1: Complete with am / is / are

1. I _____ happy today.
2. She _____ my friend.
3. They _____ in the classroom.
4. We _____ students.
5. He _____ tall.
6. You _____ very kind.
7. It _____ a dog.
8. Maria _____ tired.
9. The books _____ new.
10. Pedro and Luis _____ brothers.

EXERCISE 2: Change the name to a pronoun

1. Maria is happy. → _____ is happy.
2. John is tall. → _____ is tall.
3. Ana and I are friends. → _____ are friends.
4. The dog is hungry. → _____ is hungry.
5. Carlos and Pedro are brothers. → _____ are brothers.
6. My mother is busy. → _____ is busy.
7. You and I are classmates. → _____ are classmates.
8. The table is brown. → _____ is brown.
9. Lucy and Sara are here. → _____ are here.
10. My father is tired. → _____ is tired.

EXERCISE 3: Change affirmative sentences to negative

1. I am sad. → _____
2. She is my teacher. → _____
3. They are at home. → _____
4. He is hungry. → _____
5. We are ready. → _____
6. It is cold. → _____
7. You are late. → _____
8. Maria is tired. → _____
9. The boys are happy. → _____
10. Pedro is here. → _____

 Find us on Facebook

EXERCISE 4: Write affirmative questions from 1 to 5 and negative questions from 6 to 10

1. _____ you happy?
2. _____ she your sister?
3. _____ they students?
4. _____ he tired?
5. _____ we late?
6. _____ it a cat?
7. _____ Maria at home?
8. _____ Pedro and Luis friends?
9. _____ I wrong?
10. _____ the books new?

EXERCISE 5: Long affirmative or negative answers

1. Are you a student? → _____
2. Is she your mother? → _____
3. Are they at school? → _____
4. Is he tired? → _____
5. Are we friends? → _____
6. Is it new? → _____
7. Are you hungry? → _____
8. Is Maria here? → _____
9. Are the boys ready? → _____
10. Is Pedro tall? → _____

