

MODULE 1: AROUND THE WORLD ATC

Accent Familiarisation in Aviation Communication

TASK 1: LISTENING STATION ROTATION — INFORMATION EXTRACTION

Name: _____

Date: _____

INSTRUCTIONS

- ✓ Listen carefully to each ATC recording at the listening stations.
- ✓ For each recording:
 - Identify the important flight information.
 - Complete the table below.
 - Replay the recording if necessary.

TIP

- Pay attention to:
- Pronunciation differences
 - Speed of speech
 - Aviation vocabulary
 - Numbers and call signs

STATION 1 — Malaysian English ATC

Information	Answer
Flight Number
Runway Number
Altitude / Heading
Main Instruction Given
Purpose of Communication

STATION 2 — British English ATC

Information	Answer
Flight Number
Runway Number
Altitude / Heading
Main Instruction Given
Purpose of Communication

STATION 3 — American English ATC

Information	Answer
Flight Number
Runway Number
Altitude / Heading
Main Instruction Given
Purpose of Communication

STATION 4 — Indian English ATC

Information	Answer
Flight Number
Runway Number
Altitude / Heading
Main Instruction Given
Purpose of Communication

EXTENSION ACTIVITY (OPTIONAL)

After completing all stations, discuss with a partner:

- 1 Which accent was easiest to understand? Why?
- 2 Which accent was the most challenging?
- 3 What communication strategies helped you understand the recordings?
- 4 Why is accent familiarisation important in aviation safety?

DIGITAL ACCESS

Scan the QR codes at each station to access the ATC recordings.

SELF-CHECK

Before submitting, check that you have completed all information for each station.

REMEMBER

Clear communication saves lives.
Listen carefully. Communicate clearly. Fly safely.

