 Story: Life in Greenfield City

My name is Anna, and I live in Greenfield City, a medium-sized town with many parks, cafés, and a good public transportation system. Every day, I take the bus to work because it is fast and cheap. The streets in my neighborhood are clean, and the park near my house is usually quiet, but sometimes it is crowded on weekends.

Yesterday, the supermarket was busy, and the buses were late, so I had to wait longer than usual. Next weekend, I am going to visit the museum with my cousin, and my best friend is going to move to the city soon, so I am very excited.

In Greenfield, there are many restaurants and cafés. I usually spend about 30 minutes commuting each day. The city council says they will build more bike lanes next year, and I will go shopping downtown tomorrow.

Near my home, there is a hospital, and there are several parks where families spend time. There is also a cinema in my neighborhood, so there is always something to do at night.

After work, I usually go to the gym or meet friends. My family often goes shopping at the central mall. The best restaurants are downtown, and my favorite neighbor is Mrs. Lopez, who always brings me homemade food.

Last weekend, the busiest street was Main Street, and I was at the park with friends. Tomorrow, I am going to walk downtown, and my cousin is going to visit me soon.

Near my house, many buses stop, and I spend about 20 dollars on transport each week. At the mall tomorrow, I will buy new shoes, and the new park will be built near the river.
