

Let's Discover the Rule!

Read the dialogues and identify what the highlighted words have in common.

1. Christmas

"I heard you celebrated Christmas with your family. What did you do?"

Emily: "On Christmas, I ate dinner and drank soda."

Lucas: "What did you wear?"

Emily: "I wore a red sweater."

Lucas: "Did you go somewhere?"

Emily: "Yes, I went to my grandmother's house."

Lucas: "What did you do there?"

Emily: "We opened presents and watched some Christmas movies."

2. Halloween

"I heard you celebrated Halloween. What did you do?"

Sophia: "On Halloween, I ate candy and drank juice."

Daniel: "What did you wear?"

Sophia: "I wore a scary costume."

Daniel: "Did you go somewhere?"

Sophia: "Yes, I went to different houses."

Daniel: "What did you do there?"

Sophia: "I got candy and walked with my friends."

3. Birthday

"I heard you had your birthday last week. What did you do?"

Emma: "Yes! On my birthday, I ate cake and drank juice."

Michael: "Nice! What did you wear?"

Emma: "I wore a party hat."

Michael: "Did you go somewhere?"

Emma: "Yes, I went to a party with my friends."

Michael: "What did you do there?"

Emma: "We played games and opened presents."

1 What do these words have in common?

- Are they actions?
- Are they characteristics?
- Are they things?

2 Are these actions in the present or past?

- Present
- Past

3 When do we use these words?

- To talk about today
- To talk about yesterday
- To talk about tomorrow