

Communicative Practice

"A" vs "An" Worksheet

Part 1: Complete the dialogue with "a" or "an".

Sofia: Hello, Lucas! What do you have in your backpack today?

Lucas: I have notebook, pencil, and eraser. What about you?

Sofia: I have apple, orange, and umbrella because it is raining today.

Lucas: Oh! I also have animal book with pictures of elephant and octopus.

Sofia: That sounds interesting! I have English dictionary for our class today.

Lucas: Great! Do you also have marker for the activity?

Sofia: Yes, I do. I have blue marker in my pencil case.

Part 2: Practice the dialogue

Student A

Student A takes the role of Sofia and reads her lines aloud.

Student B

Student B takes the role of Lucas and answers Sofia's questions.

Switch!

Practice the dialogue together. Then, change roles and read it again!

Part 3: Create your own sentences

Work with your partner and write four new sentences using "a" or "an" correctly.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
-

Part 4: Pair Discussion

Discuss these questions with your partner. Try to answer using "a" or "an" in complete sentences!

What objects do you have in your backpack?

What food do you usually bring to class?

What animal do you like the most?