

1. Even though Sally's Chicago only once, she knows a lot about the city.
a. gone b. been to c. gone to d. been in
2. My sister isn't answering her cell phone. She may it in the car.
a. left b. have left c. had left d. have been leaving
3. Before you for island, check the return boat schedules.
a. to leave b. are leaving c. leave d. have left
4. "My brother's going to Brazil."
 "Lucky him. I to go there."
a. always want b. have always wanted c. am always wanting d. always have wanted
5. The annoying thing about Daryl is that he
a. is always giggling b. always giggles c. giggles always d. has been giggling
6. The more you listen to classical music, the more you it.
a. are understanding b. understand c. have understood d. have been understanding
7. "Do you know Mr. Owens?" "Of course! He here for 25 years."
a. is teaching b. teaches c. has taught d. will be teaching
8. That dog's forever shut in the bathroom.
a. gets b. getting c. got d. is getting
9. Mr. Willis was the store when two masked men appeared.
a. about to close b. to close c. for closing d. just to close
10. By the time we get to the beach, we for four hours.
a. will be driving b. are driving c. will drive d. will have been driving
11. Unfortunately, the business is down.
a. on the point of closing b. on the point to close c. at the point of closing d. at the point to close
12. The train is due at 8.30.
a. arrive b. to arrive c. arriving d. will arrive
13. By the time he is 28, my brother as a doctor.
a. will have qualified b. will be qualifying c. is qualifying d. will have been qualifying
14. When he his degree, Bob is going to grad school.
a. is finished b. finishes c. will finish d. will have finished 15. Michael and Megan are getting a divorce.
a. due to b. on the verge of c. going to d. about to