

WRITE A PARAGRAPH (150 WORDS)

Think about something that happened to you. What might have happened if things had been different?

Make notes about the following:

- what happened
- who was involved
- what could have been different
- how it made you feel - are there any strong adjectives you could use to describe the experience?