Welcome to My Town: Uvo

My name is Thomas, and I want to tell you about my hometown, Uvo. Uvo is a very good town, but it is quite small. There are two beautiful public parks here: Thorpe Park and Stanley Park. People love to walk there.

There are no big restaurants in Uvo, but there's a fantastic café near my house – it's really good! There is a train station, so it is easy to travel to other cities. For shopping, there are two small bookshops, and there is also a traditional street market every Saturday where you can buy fresh food. However, there isn't a modern supermarket here.

Some things are missing in Uvo. There are no cinemas, no hotels, and there aren't any banks, so you need to bring cash with you.

I live in a comfortable flat with my friend. Our flat has five rooms in total: two bedrooms, a living room, a kitchen, and a bathroom. In the kitchen, there is a small table, a chair, and an oven, but there isn't a microwave. The bathroom has a toilet and a shower, but there isn't a bath. We have a TV in the living room, but there aren't any TVs in the bedrooms. Fortunately, there is excellent wifi! The flat is nice, but there isn't a lift in the building, so we have to use the stairs every day. I love my flat and I love my town!
