COUNTABLE AND UNCOUNTABLE WORDS

Use countable nouns for things we can count. They have singular and plural forms.
Examples: an apple – apples / a book – books

Use uncountable nouns for things we cannot count. They do not have plural forms.
Examples: water / information / furniture

1. CLASSIFY THE WORDS

Write each word in the correct column.

advice • chair • water • phones • music
information • books • milk • time • cars
sugar • bread • happiness • students • rice

COUNTABLE	UNCOUNTABLE
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

2. CHOOSE THE CORRECT OPTION

Choose "a / an", "some", or "any".

1. There is _____ apple on the table.
2. I need _____ information about the course.
3. Do you have _____ time this afternoon?
4. She doesn't eat _____ meat.
5. We bought _____ new chairs.
6. Is there _____ milk in the fridge?
7. Could you give me _____ advice?
8. I don't have _____ sugar left.
9. He read _____ interesting book.
10. We don't have _____ water. Let's buy some.

3. COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

Write the correct form of the word in parentheses.

1. I usually drink a lot of _____. (water)
2. She bought three _____ at the store. (book)
3. There isn't much _____ about this topic. (information)
4. He gave me some good _____ yesterday. (advice)
5. How many _____ do you see on the table? (apple)
6. We don't have enough _____ to finish the project. (time)
7. My favorite music is classical _____. (music)
8. Could you pass me _____, please? (salt)

4. LOOK AT THE PICTURES

Write C (countable) or U (uncountable).

1.  _____
2.  _____
3.  _____
4.

_____
5.  _____
6.  _____

5. REWRITE THE SENTENCES

Rewrite each sentence. Use much with uncountable nouns and a lot of / many with countable nouns.

1. There is not water in the bottle.
   _____
2. We don't have money.
   _____
3. She has not friends in this city.
   _____
4. There isn't time to finish the test.
   _____
5. I have books to read this weekend.
   _____

6. CORRECT THE MISTAKES

Find and correct the mistake in each sentence.

1. I need some advices about my project. _____
2. There are much people at the concert. _____
3. Can I have a water, please? _____
4. He bought two informations yesterday. _____
5. She has a lot of time to study. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS