Amazing Animals

A Last night, I watched a lovely documentary about a woman and her owls. She trains them to fly from one person to another. They are very lively, and look like they enjoy being around people. Owls usually fly at night, so it was nice to see them during the day. They have such big eyes! They use them to see at night. They aren't dangerous to people, just small animals like rabbits.

B I watched a fantastic programme on television last week. It was about a woman who has got spiders. She performs on stage in TV shows. Many people aren't into spiders and other insects. I don't like spiders, but I'm okay with insects. Spiders are aggressive sometimes. She tries to stop people feeling nervous. She's very calm and gets the spiders to walk on people. No, thanks, that's not for me.

C When we were on holiday last year, we had the chance to watch sharks swimming. It was amazing. I was quite worried at first, as they are dangerous animals. In the water, the sharks didn't swim very fast and weren't aggressive. One man didn't listen to the owner of the boat and didn't say 'thank you' at the end of the trip. He wasn't very polite. The other people were really friendly. It was nice meeting them and talking to them.
