Lesson 6: Jobs
Unit 1 TRACK 2

1

A: So what you do?
B: I'm an engineer.
A: Oh, right. Where do you work?
B: Well, I travel around _____ a lot, actually.
A: Oh, OK.
B: Yeah, I'm _____in Scotland at the moment – in Glasgow. They're _____ a new sports stadium there and I'm working on that.
A: Really? So where do you live, then?
B: Well, in London most of the time, but I'm r___ an apartment in Glasgow while I'm there. I usually come down to London every two weeks, if I can.
A: And do you enjoy it?
B: Yeah, it's ___. I don't really mind the travelling and the money's good. Plus, I don't really have much time to spend it!
A: Well, I guess that's good, then. What are the hours l___?
B: Oh, I usually work quite l___hours. I mean, I often do a sixty-hour week.
A: Really? That sounds ___.
B: No, it's good and l__ __ really well with the other people I work with.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

2

C: So, what do you do?
D: Oh, I work __ a small company back in Korea, but I'm actually a student at the moment.
C: Oh, OK. What are you studying?
D: I'm doing a Master's ____ in Marketing.
C: Is that what you do in your company? Marketing?
D: Yes, ___of.
C: So how long have you worked there?
D: About two years now.
C: Only two years and they're sending you to another country to study! That's ____!
D: Yeah, well, actually my father r___ the company and he wants me to become the marketing manager.
C: Oh, right. I see. So do you __ ___ with the other people you work with?
D: Yeah, we get on OK, but it can be difficult sometimes because I'm the boss's daughter, you know?
C: Yeah, I can ___.
D: I sometimes feel like I have to work harder to show everyone I can actually do my job.
C: I'm s___.

LIVEWORKSHEETS