

Paragraph 1

Yesterday morning the student council met before school to discuss the spring fundraiser. After several ideas were shared the group decided to organize a community car wash. During the meeting Maya suggested advertising the event on social media. In addition the students planned to make posters for local businesses. By the end of the meeting everyone had chosen a job to complete before Friday.

---

Paragraph 2

Without warning the power went out during science class. At first the students thought it was part of an experiment. A few minutes later however the principal announced that the entire neighborhood had lost electricity. Because the computers were unavailable the teacher changed the lesson plans. Instead the class worked together to solve logic puzzles on paper.

---

Paragraph 3

Last weekend our soccer team traveled to Spokane for a tournament. Before the first game the coach reminded everyone to stay focused and positive. Throughout the match the defense played extremely well. After several close shots however the opposing team finally scored. In the final minutes our team tied the game with a penalty kick.

---

Paragraph 4

Early in the novel the main character seems selfish and impatient. As the story continues however the reader begins to understand his struggles. For example he often feels pressure from both his family and friends. By the final chapter he has learned to take responsibility for his choices. Overall the author develops the character in a believable way.

---

Paragraph 5

On Saturday afternoon my brother attempted to bake cookies by himself. Before long the kitchen was covered with flour and chocolate chips. Surprisingly the cookies actually turned out well. After dinner everyone in the family sampled the desserts. In the end my brother decided that baking was more difficult than he expected.

---