

Vocabulary in Context

A. Complete these definitions with the words in the box.

ailments	coincidence	pace	sensitive	stimulating
attitude	contentment	select	soothe	subconsciously

1. People who are sick have
2. To.....someone is to comfort the person and make the person feel better.
3. Something that excites us and makes us active is
4. To do somethingis to act without actively knowing that you are doing it.
5. When things happen by....., they appear to be connected in some way but really are not.
6. Youris the feeling or emotion you have toward something.
7. A state of happiness and satisfaction is
8.is the speed at which we do things.
9. People who are able to understand other people's feelings and problems are
10. To.....is to choose something or someone.

B. Answer these questions with complete sentences.

1. What color soothes you?

.....

2. What color do you find stimulating?

.....

3. Do you read English at a slow, medium, or fast pace?

.....

4. What is an ailment many people have some time in their life?

.....

5. What color clothes do you usually select?

.....