Amanda's travel blog

Here I am with my family on day three of our two-week stay in Bali. We're staying in a small hostel in Ubud, which is famous for its monkey forest. The monkeys are everywhere and they don't seem to be afraid of the tourists. While we were walking through the forest yesterday, one of them tried to grab my camera but luckily it didn't succeed! Other tourists weren't quite so lucky though.

Tomorrow we're meeting up with some other backpackers and we're climbing the volcano that is near here. We've found a local guide who will take us up and although it's very hot in the town, he says it will be very cold at the top of the volcano. I hope I'll be OK as I didn't bring any warm clothes with me.

We're spending next week in Kuta, relaxing by the sea. The beaches here are fantastic and lots of people come here to go surfing. I've never tried it before but I'll probably have a go if I feel brave.

This is such a beautiful island and the people are so friendly. I know I'll be sad to leave but I'm sure I'll come back again one day as there are so many other places to explore.

1 Amanda has recently arrived in Bali. T / F
2 The wild monkeys stole her camera. T / F
3 Amanda is worried about the hike up the volcano. T / F
4 Amanda will definitely try the surfing. T / F
5 Amanda has seen all the interesting places. T / F
