LISTENING DICTATION – SKY JAM

Listen carefully and write the missing words.

Hi everyone. I'm going to tell you about a new video game that I've played a lot recently, called Sky Jam. It's produced by the same company that made Road Jam a few years ago, which was set in a city, of course. Instead of streets and huge buildings, though, you'll find yourself living in a (1) _____ in this game.

It's an unusual game because you have to answer questions in order to make progress, as well as by moving through the (2) _____. You'll be asked all sorts of things regarding insects, which you have to learn on the way from the many helpful (3) _____ you meet, such as butterflies and bats.

There are 30 levels in the whole game, which are supposed to become more and more (4) _____ as you go on. I found the one called "the monkey" almost (5) _____, even though it comes well before the last level, called "the frog", which didn't seem so difficult.

There are lots of things to love about this game. The story you learn about as you continue through the game is (6) _____, second only to the (7) _____ you can play, who are lovely, and extremely interesting too.

(8) _____, unlike the eight players who could play against each other in Road Jam, six people at the most can join in this game at any one time. I found this to be a few too many, though, and (9) _____ playing in a group of four.

You can find out more about the game online. If you're interested, visit the company's website [www.lombardio.com].

I hope you enjoyed my (10) _____. Thank you for listening.
