

READING COMPREHENSION

A Day at GlobalTech Offices

GlobalTech is a medium-sized company that specialises in digital marketing solutions. The office opens at 8:30 a.m., and most employees arrive before 9:00 a.m. Sarah, the project manager, usually starts her day by checking emails and scheduling team meetings. She has worked at GlobalTech for five years and knows the workflow very well.

Yesterday was a busy day. The team presented a new campaign to an important client at 11:00 a.m. Before the meeting, they had prepared all the materials and rehearsed the presentation twice. The client liked the proposal and signed the contract in the afternoon. After work, Sarah and her colleagues celebrated with a small dinner.

Currently, GlobalTech is expanding its services to include social media management. The company believes that innovation and teamwork are essential for growth. Next month, they will launch a training programme for new employees.
