

Happy Birthday!

TOM'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

Next Sunday is Tom's birthday. He is going to have a party at home. Tom is going to invite his friends: Ben, Lucy and Sam. He is going to send birthday cards to them.

Tom's mum is going to buy a big birthday cake with candles. She is also going to buy colourful balloons. Tom's dad is going to buy a present for Tom – a new robot.

Tom's friends are going to come to the party at 3 o'clock. They are going to give presents to Tom. Lucy is going to give a birthday card. Ben is going to give a Lego set. Sam is going to give a funny book.

At the party, they are going to have fun: play games, eat cake and sing "Happy Birthday". Tom is very happy.

EXERCISES

TASK 1. Use "be going to" construction in the right form to complete the sentences

1. Tom _____ have a party at home.
2. His mum _____ buy a birthday cake.
3. I _____ give a present to my friend.
4. The children _____ have fun at the party.
5. You _____ send a birthday card.

TASK 2. Answer the questions

1. What is Tom going to do next Sunday?

2. What is Tom's mum going to buy?

3. What are the friends going to do at the party?

4. What is Tom's dad going to give?

5. Who is going to give a birthday card?

TASK 3. Fill in the gaps have fun birthday card candle invite friends come to a party birthday cake

balloons present

1. Tom is going to _____ to his party.

2. Tom's mum is going to buy a _____ and _____.

3. Tom's dad is going to buy a _____ for Tom.

4. Lucy is going to give a _____ to Tom.

5. On the cake, there is one _____.

6. The children are going to _____.

7. Ben, Lucy and Sam are going to _____ at 3 o'clock.

TASK 4. Find and correct the mistakes

1) Tom are going to have a party.

→ _____

2) His friends is going to give presents.

→ _____

3) I are going to have fun.

→ _____

4) She am going to buy a balloon.

→ _____

5) We is going to sing a song.

→ _____