Teenagers go through a crucial stage of development as they transition from childhood to adulthood. During this time, they experience significant physical, emotional, and social changes. These changes can sometimes be overwhelming, leading to stress and confusion. Many teenagers struggle to find their identity, build self-confidence, and balance school responsibilities with social life.

One of the biggest challenges teenagers face is peer pressure. They often feel the need to fit in with their friends, which can sometimes lead them to make poor decisions.
