

Choose the correct word for each sentence.
Write the word on the line.

- This means to look at something carefully to understand it. _____
- This word describes a person who can make new ideas, stories, or things. _____
- This word means not easy because it has many parts. _____
- This is a small piece of information about something. _____
- This word describes a person who thinks clearly and carefully. _____
- This tells you how to do something.

- This word describes a person who likes thinking of interesting ideas and stories. _____
- This is an idea that explains how something may work. _____
- This word describes something useful in real life. _____
- This means to decide what you will do before doing it. _____