

productivity · supervise · flexibility · technology · collaboration · traditional · workforce · reports · managers · desks · competitive · project-based · consumers · constraints · productivity

The world we live in is changing rapidly, and workplaces must adapt in order to remain efficient and (1) _____. In more (2) _____ work settings, employees were expected to arrive at the office at fixed times and follow instructions from their (3) _____.

However, modern developments in smartphones and internet (4) _____ have changed the way people work. Employees now often answer emails, attend meetings, and prepare (5) _____ from home. Because of this, people need to work smarter, not just harder.

The role of managers is also evolving. Many organisations are moving towards a (6) _____ approach where teamwork and (7) _____ are essential. Instead of constantly trying to (8) _____ employees, managers now focus on helping teams adapt and achieve goals together.

To support these changes, companies are adopting agile working methods. Unilever defines agile working as an approach with maximum (9) _____ and minimum (10) _____.

Agile working is not only about working from home. Agile workspaces may include standing (11) _____, quiet zones, and social areas. Such environments help improve employee well-being and (12) _____.

Task 1

Companies must remain competitive in order to succeed in the modern market.

Some offices include quiet zones where employees can think without distractions.

Traditional managers often supervise their employees closely.

They must adapt quickly to changing deadlines.

My technique has evolved throughout the years.

A similar plan was adopted eight years later.

A practical skills based approach is often really appreciated .

Task 2

Vocabulary Definition

1. agile
2. to clarify
3. globalisation
4. rain or shine
5. a constraint
6. one size fits all
7. to gather
8. productivity
 - a. a thing that limits something
 - b. able to move quickly and easily
 - c. to come together in a group
 - d. the rate at which a person, company, etc. does useful work
 - e. to make something clear or easier to understand
 - f. the development of closer economic, political and cultural relations between all the countries of the world because of travel and communication becoming easier
 - g. suitable for use in all circumstances or situations
 - h. no matter what happens

Task 3

employees valuing adapt adopt employers enable limiting clarify

1. Companies need to to the changing world we live in. 2. Companies should agile approaches to find the most appropriate and efficient ways of working. 3. Many can now work from home. 4. More agile allow their workers more flexibility. 5. One of the roles of the manager is to goals and collaboration. 6. Agile working is about people instead of them.

Task 4

1. The world we live in _____ rapidly.
 - a) change
 - b) changes
 - c) is changing
2. Companies need to adapt in order _____ competitive.
 - a) remain
 - b) to remain
 - c) remaining
3. Employees used to _____ at the office at 9 a.m.
 - a) arrive
 - b) arrived
 - c) arriving
4. Many workers are now _____ emails from home.
 - a) answer
 - b) answering
 - c) answered
5. Managers no longer spend all their time _____ staff.
 - a) supervise
 - b) supervising
 - c) supervised
6. Agile working helps organisations _____ more efficient.
 - a) become
 - b) became
 - c) becoming

7. Workspaces are designed _____ different kinds of work.
a) suit
b) to suit
c) suited
8. Agile workspaces might _____ quiet zones and social areas.
a) include
b) included
c) including

Task 5

Employees worked only in offices in the past.

(used to)

Managers supervise staff less today.

(not as ... as)

Agile working improves productivity.

(passive voice)

Companies adapt quickly to change.

(present continuous)

Discussion

What's your experience of agile working?