

A Special Dinner

Yesterday, Sam and Jenny went to a new restaurant. Two weeks ago, their friend said: "The food there is fantastic!", so they decided to try it.

They sat at a table. On the table, there was a white plate, a glass, a knife, a fork, a spoon, and a green serviette.

First, they looked at the menu. For starters, Sam wanted a bowl of tomato soup, and Jenny got a fresh salad with olives. For the main course, Sam ate a big steak with potatoes and peas. Jenny didn't want meat, so she chose seafood; she ate fish with rice and beans.

They didn't drink fizzy drinks. Sam drank a glass of water, and Jenny drank orange juice. For dessert, they ate a delicious chocolate cake.

Finally, Sam drank a cup of coffee and Jenny had a cup of tea. They thought the meal was wonderful. They wrote a good review on the internet and went home.
