

LISTENING PRACTICE 2

You will hear Edward talking to his friend Michaela about dance classes. Listen and fill in the blank with NO MORE THAN THREE words

Michaela: Hi, Edward, do you go to the dance school for your dance classes?

Edward: Hi, Michaela. They're too (1) _____ there. My classes were at the sports centre last year, but they moved to the college.

Michaela: Oh, OK.

Edward: And how often do you have classes?

Michaela: (2) _____, and it's an eight-week course.

Edward: You've been to four classes already, haven't you?

Michaela: That's right. Is your teacher good?

Edward: She quickly shows us what to do instead of (3) _____, which is OK most of the time. She laughs when we (4) _____, but in a nice way! And, what's really nice, if you do something well, you get a little packet of sweets.

Michaela: Oh, nice!

Edward: What do you (5) _____ for your classes?

Michaela: When I wore shorts and a T-shirt, they weren't warm enough, and (6) _____ and a sweater aren't good for dancing in, so I just wear (7) _____ and a shirt.

Edward: Me too.

Michaela: (8) _____ your classes?

Edward: Yes. Remembering the different dances isn't easy, but I always (9) _____ with my classmates. I wish I could (10) _____, it's not very good!
