Test: The Presidential Election of 1892

Part I: Matching: Match each person or term in Column A with the correct description in Column B.

| Column A | Column B |
|---|---|
| 1. Grover Cleveland | A. Republican president defeated in the election |
| 2. Benjamin Harrison | B. A political party supported mainly by farmers and workers |
| 3. Populist Party | C. Democratic candidate who won the presidency in 1892 |
| 4. James B. Weaver | D. Debate over taxes on imported goods |
| 5. Tariff issue | E. Populist candidate for president |
| 6. Election of 1892 | F. Election that showed growing support for third parties |

---

Part II: Multiple Choice: Choose the best answer for each question.

1. Who won the Presidential Election of 1892?
   - A. Benjamin Harrison
   - B. Theodore Roosevelt
   - C. Grover Cleveland
   - D. James B. Weaver
2. Which political party did Grover Cleveland represent?
   - A. Republican Party
   - B. Democratic Party
   - C. Populist Party
   - D. Socialist Party
3. What group strongly supported the Populist Party in 1892?
   - A. Railroad owners
   - B. Farmers and laborers
   - C. Bankers
   - D. Factory executives
4. Who was the Populist Party candidate in the election of 1892?
   - A. William McKinley
   - B. Benjamin Harrison
   - C. James B. Weaver
   - D. Grover Cleveland
5. Which issue was important during the election of 1892?
   - A. Space exploration
   - B. Railroad expansion only
   - C. Tariffs and economic problems
   - D. Television regulation
6. Why was the Populist Party important in the 1892 election?
   - A. It won the presidency
   - B. It showed the growing concerns of farmers and workers
   - C. It ended the two-party system
   - D. It supported only wealthy business owners
7. Benjamin Harrison belonged to which political party?
   - A. Democratic Party
   - B. Populist Party
   - C. Republican Party
   - D. Progressive Party
8. Grover Cleveland became the only president at the time to
   - A. serve two nonconsecutive terms
   - B. be elected three times in a row
   - C. resign from office
   - D. belong to two political parties

---

LIVEWORKSHEETS