Hey Emily,

How have you been? It feels like forever since we last talked! University has been keeping me really busy lately, and I've also started a part-time job at a café downtown.

Last weekend, some friends and I went to a concert, and it reminded me of all the fun times we used to have together. We definitely need to hang out again soon!

I'm planning to go to the new coffee shop near the mall this Friday evening. If you're free, we could meet there and catch up properly.

Hope everything is going well with you. Text me when you can!

Take care,
Emma
