

THE FOODIE TRAVELER

Hey, foodies! Welcome back to my travel blog. Today, we are exploring a hidden gem in Colombia: Laura's Kitchen.

First, the main courses. If you love classic comfort food, their spaghetti is incredible. For meat lovers, you can order a juicy steak or their famous roast chicken, which comes with a delicious Colombian twist: a bowl of crispy papas criollas! Want something faster? Their hamburger options are top-tier.

Now, let's talk about dessert. Please try the warm chocolate cookie served with a scoop of special ice cream made of local arequipe before you leave. It is a dream! And of course, to finish your meal like a real Colombian, you must order a cup of premium hot coffee.

A meal for two people costs around $60.000 COP, and the waiters are incredibly friendly. It is a very busy family restaurant, so booking a table for a special occasion is a smart move. They are open from 11:00 AM to 11:00 PM every day. Don't miss the chance to visit!
