Connectives

These words join ideas, clauses, or sentences together to show relationships:

- and: Adds information. I love chocolate and ice cream.
- but: Shows contrast. I love chocolate ice cream but I don't eat them very often.
- because: Explains a reason. I love chocolate ice cream because it is so creamy.
- so (that): Expresses a result or purpose. I love chocolate so I enjoy it very much.
- (in order) to + verb: Indicates a specific goal or intention.

  I always go to the store in order to buy chocolate ice cream.

Wh- question words

These are used to request specific information. Common examples include:

- Who (person) : Who is the guy over there?
- What (thing/action) What time is it?
- Where (place) Where did you go last night?
- When (time) When are you coming to Monterrey?
- Why (reason) Why is she taking all that money?
- How (manner/method) How was the party?

Part 1: Connectives

Instructions: Fill in the blanks with the correct connective: and, but, because, so (that), or (in order) to.

1. I wanted to go for a walk, _____ it started to rain.
2. She is studying hard _____ she can pass her final exam.
3. We went to the supermarket _____ buy some fresh vegetables.
4. He stayed at home _____ he was feeling unwell.
5. I bought a new laptop _____ a comfortable mouse.
6. The music was very loud, _____ I couldn't hear what you said.

Part 2: Wh- Question Words

Instructions: Choose the appropriate Wh- word (Who, What, Where, When, Why, How) to complete the questions.

1. _____ is your favorite book?
2. _____ are you going for your summer holidays?
3. _____ did you choose this career? Because I love helping people.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

4. _____ is that person standing by the door?
5. _____ does the movie start? At 8:00 PM.
6. _____ do you get to work? I usually take the bus.

Part 3: Mixed Constructions

Instructions: Combine the two sentences using the word in brackets.

1. I went to the library. I wanted to study in peace. (in order to)
    - Example: I went to the library in order to study in peace.
2. She forgot her umbrella. She got wet. (so)
    - _____
3. They like pizza. They like pasta. (and)
    - _____
4. He is very tall. He cannot fit in this small car. (but)
    - _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS