

The Birthday Present

Toby is going shopping because it's his mother's birthday. What is he buying for her? Use the letters in the squares with the little birthday cake candles to make the word. They are not in the right order.

ACROSS

- 1 In the sandwich bar you can buy things to take or eat there (4)
- 3 You can buy a pair of and a scarf for the winter (6)
- 5 "Have you got any trainers in size 6?" "....., I'm sorry, we've only got them in size 5." (2)
- 6 "Do you have any Japanese food?" "....., what would you like?" (3)
- 7 "I'd like some to eat with my strawberries, please." (5)
- 9 "Can I help you?" "Yes, please, like to buy some sunglasses." (2)
- 10 If you want to buy some sports clothes, to the sports department on the ground floor (2)
- 13 Always remember to say "please" and "..... you" (5)
- 15 (See 8 Down) (2)
- 16 "Do you like the blue hat?" "No, doesn't suit me." (2)
- 18 "Have you got any of these T-shirts in blue green please?" (2)
- 19 (See 11 Down)
- 20 "I'd like some blue jeans," (6)

DOWN

- 1 "Have you got medium T-shirts please?" (3)
- 2 He/she serves you in a shop (9)
- 3 Do you like to shopping at the weekend? (2)
- 4 "I'd like trainers please." (4)
- 5 "Have you got any bananas please?" "..... I'm sorry, we haven't." (2)
- 7 "I'd like some potatoes because I'm going to supper."
- 8 (and 15 Across) When you want the assistant to help you, you say this (6, 2)
- 11 (and 19 Across) "I'd like to these trainers, please" (3,2)
- 12 "..... you got any red hats, please?" (4)
- 14 "I'm , we haven't got any trainers in your size." (5)
- 16 "You can buy a baseball cap the sports department." (2)
- 17 "Excuse !" (2)

The birthday present is a

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--