Conversation 2

Situation: At the end of an academic lecture

Prof. Lee: So, with that, I conclude my lecture on "The History of Music". Are there any questions?

Student: Yes, Professor. Thank you for a very fascinating talk. Do you think that AI can write original music?

Prof. Lee: Excellent question. I don't think so. It can only "cut-and-paste" from music already written by humans._____(5)_____

Student: I think so. You're saying it's like copying something from someone else.

Prof. Lee: Exactly. It can't claim to be original wring. _____(6)_____ even human composers take ideas from other writers of music, so maybe I'm wrong.

Student: By the way, Professor, may I ask, _____(7)_____

Prof. Lee: Oh, for me personally? I'd say I'm very modern. I think hip-hop is awesome!

Student: Really? My parents say it's not music.

Prof: Lee: _____(8)_____
