Disclaimer: This resource has been made for the purpose of teaching English language learners. We know that students can be learning English in many different places, in many different ways and at any age, so we try to keep these resources as general as possible.

There are many acronyms associated with English language teaching. These include (but are not limited to) ELT, TEFL, EFL, ELL, EAL and ESOL. While the term ESL may not fully represent the linguistic backgrounds of all students, it is the most widely recognised term for English language teaching globally. Therefore, we use the term 'ESL' in the names of our resources to make them easy to find but they are suitable for any student learning to speak English.

Example: Yesterday, a 0 fire fighter visited Ellie's school to talk about their work.

All the students were excited because they know fire fighters do a very important 1, helping people in emergencies.

The fire fighter, called Max, brought a big bag of things fire fighters use to show everyone. Max explained how they wear special 2 to stay safe and how they wear strong helmets to protect their heads.

Max also talked about the people they work with, like police officers and ambulance drivers. "Sometimes, we have to call an 3 to go to the hospital when people are hurt," Max explained, "and we all work together to help."

After the talk, Max took the students outside to show them a real fire ! They let everyone see inside the truck and explained that they sometimes put water onto to make sure everything is safe.

At the end of the visit, Ellie put her hand up. "Thank you for keeping us safe," she said, "I think I want to be a fire fighter one day."
