Michael Jackson was one of the most famous singers in the world. He was born in 1958 in the United States. As a child, he sang with his brothers in a group called The Jackson 5.

Michael was more talented than many singers of his time. He was also more energetic than most performers on stage. His dance moves were faster and more exciting than those of many other artists. People loved his concerts because they were bigger and more spectacular than many others.

His album Thriller was the best-selling album in history for many years. It was also one of the most successful albums ever made. Many people believe that Michael Jackson was the greatest pop artist of his generation.

Today, his music is still more popular than the music of many singers from the 1980s. Songs like Billie Jean and Beat It remain among the most famous songs in pop music.

Activities

1. Underline the comparatives in the text.

Example: more talented

2. Circle the superlatives in the text.

Example: the most famous

3. Complete the chart.

Adjective	Comparative	Superlative
famous	more famous	the most famous
talented	_____	_____
energetic	_____	_____
exciting	_____	_____
successful	_____	_____
great	_____	_____

4. Answer the questions.

1. Was Michael Jackson more energetic than most performers?
2. What was the best-selling album mentioned in the text?
3. Which songs are among the most famous in pop music?
4. Why did people love his concerts?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

5. Write your own sentences.

- Michael Jackson was _____ than many singers.
- Thriller was one of the _____ albums in history.
- His concerts were _____ than many others.

LIVEWORKSHEETS