Superlative Adjectives

andilu
BEYOND LEARNING

Simple Form	Superlative form	Type of adjective
cheap	the cheapest	• One-syllable adjectives
safe	the safest	• One-syllable adjectives that end in -e
big	the biggest	• One-syllable adjectives that end in consonant vowel consonant
cozy	the coziest	• Two-syllable adjectives that end in -y
recent	the most recent	• Other two-syllable adjectives
quiet	the quietest or the most quiet	• Some two-syllable adjectives have two forms
expensive	the most expensive	• Adjectives with three or more syllables

Note: • Use the Superlative form to compare one thing to two or more things.
• A prepositional phrase is sometimes used at the end of a superlative sentence. EXAMPLE: My city is the smallest city in the world.

EXERCISE: Choose the correct superlative form.

1. This is _____ movie in this month. (the most exciting / the excitingest)
2. She is _____ student in our class. (the more intelligent / the most intelligent)
3. That was _____ day of my life. (the happyest / the happiest)
4. Jupiter is _____ planet in our solar system. (the largest / the most large)
5. This is _____ road in the country. (the dangerousest / the most dangerous)
6. He is _____ person I know. (the kindest / the most kind)
7. That was _____ meal in this restaurant. (the deliciousest / the most delicious)
8. Mount Everest is _____ mountain in the world. (the high / the highest)
9. My grandmother tells _____ stories. (the funniest / the most funny)
10. Cheetahs are _____ animals on land. (the fastest / the most fast)
11. This book is _____ book in the library. (the old / the oldest)
12. She is _____ athlete on the team. (the most talented / the talentedest)
13. This is _____ house on the street. (the most big / the biggest)
14. Yesterday was _____ day of the summer. (the hottest / the most hot)
15. This is _____problem we have to solve today. (the difficultest / the most difficult)
16. He is _____ boy in the neighborhood. (the quietest / the most quiet)

LIVEWORKSHEETS