Two friends are talking on the phone. READ the following text to answer questions 1, 2, 3 and 4.

Daniel: Hi, John. What's up?

John: Hey, Dani. Nothing much. Here we are in isolation, because of the quarantine.

Daniel: OMG. It's difficult. Here we are also in isolation, but I go out everyday.

John: Wow. That's sounds good. I can't go outside. My mother said it's dangerous.

Daniel: Got it. What a shame!

John: So, I don't know what day is today nor how the weather is outside. Could you tell me? How's the weather today?

Daniel: Sure. Wait a second. I'm going to check.

John: Ok, take your time.

Daniel: Well, now it's sunny, but early was cloudy. I think later will be cold, because we are in autumn. I like cold days. I can wear my new windbreaker.

John: Good weather! I like sunny days. They are my favorite. I can wear shorts, T-shirt and flip flops. We could play soccer if my mother didn't say me to stay inside the house.

Daniel: Calm down, my friend! We will have more sunny days to play soccer and have fun after this quarantine.

John: For God sake! I hope for this day anxiously.

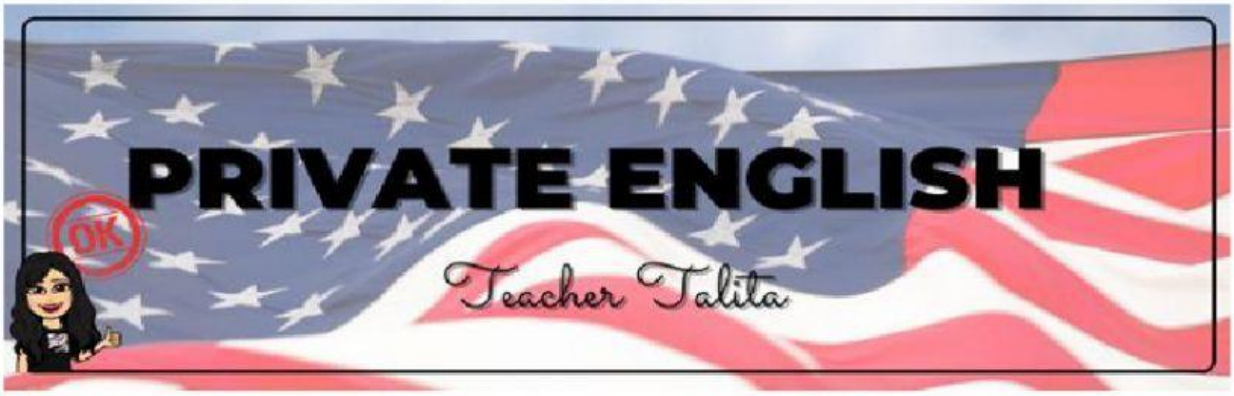

Daniel: Let's play na online soccer match?

John: Oh yes! Let's go!

Daniel: See you at the game in a few minutes.

Jonh: See you soon dude.
