Subject College graduation vacay!

Hey Jordan,

How are you? I found a cool travel brochure, and I think this trip has everything we're looking for for our college trip! Here are some of the details.

It's a week of extreme adventure in three popular places in Mexico: Guadalupe Island, Cancún, and Acapulco. At Guadalupe Island, we'll have the opportunity to go shark diving! Of course, you don't have to dive. If someone isn't into that, they can just watch. Next, in Cancún, we'll do activities like bungee jumping—something I know you've always wanted to try—kitesurfing and, if the weather permits, we can also go parasailing! Thrilling, right? We'll also go sightseeing at a Mayan site in Cancún. I think that'll be fascinating for everyone! In Acapulco, we'll try glamping—a luxurious type of camping—so we won't be in tents but in fancy bungalows. We'll do different water sports on the Papagayo River and, on the last day, we'll have a barbecue on the beach and try different Mexican dishes.

I think we'll have an incredible time if we book this vacation! It has something for everyone in the graduating class. What do you think? Write soon and let me know!

Best wishes,

Stephen
