

LISTENING TEST N° 3

Global Perspectives: Challenges, Opportunities, and Success

Full name: _____

Grade and section: _____ Date: _____ Score: ____ / 14

TEXT A

You are going to hear a student talking about his experience studying abroad and how it influenced his personal and academic growth. [5 marks]

1.- Choose the five true statements.

A. Lucas believed that studying in another country could improve his future professional opportunities.

B. Lucas says he had visited Sydney many times before moving there.

C. Lucas has a vivid memory of his first day in Australia.

D. Lucas adapted immediately and never experienced difficulties.

E. Lucas believes international experience is not valuable for students.

F. Lucas believes success depends only on financial security and social status.

G. Lucas expects that his university experience will provide him with valuable international skills.

H. Lucas studied abroad mainly because his parents forced him to do so.

I. Adjusting to his new environment was more difficult than Lucas had expected.

J. Lucas associates success with happiness and having a healthy lifestyle.

TEXT B

You are going to hear two students, Mia and Ethan, talking about their experiences living abroad. They discuss some of the challenges they faced and give advice to other young people who are planning to live in another country. [5 marks]

Tick [✓] one correct option for each of the following statements.

M= Mia

E= Eithan

B= both

Whose opinion?

M

E

B

2.- Living abroad can help people become more confident.

3.- The biggest challenge was communicating in the local language.

4.- Adapting to a new culture requires patience and an open mind.

5.- Foreigners should not be afraid of speaking, even if they make mistakes

6.- Students should participate in activities to make new friends.

TEXT C

You are going to hear a teacher speaking on a school podcast about different ways teenagers can broaden their career prospects. [4 marks]

For questions 1–6, choose the best answer (A, B, or C).

7.- What point does the presenter make about transferable skills?

- A. they are usually more important than academic qualifications.
- B. they help people adapt to different professional contexts.
- C. they are mainly useful during the early stages of a career.

8.- According to the presenter, extracurricular activities can help students...

- A. identify abilities they may not have recognized before.
- B. gain advantages over other university applicants.
- C. decide which subjects they should study at university.

9.- What opinion does the presenter express about studying abroad?

- A. It is beneficial only for students pursuing international careers.
- B. It offers advantages that local experiences cannot provide.
- C. It is one of several possible ways to develop personally and professionally.

10.- What does the presenter suggest about career development?

- A. Success largely depends on individual determination.
- B. Professional networks can play an important role.
- C. Career planning should begin as early as possible.