Name: Score:

10 Multiple choice questions

Term 1 of 20

What is the capitalization rule for important words in titles?

- Capitalize all important words in titles including articles.
- Capitalize all words in titles except for articles.
- Capitalize all important words in titles except for short prepositions.
- Capitalize all important words in titles except for articles and short prepositions.

Term 2 of 20

What is the capitalization rule for compass points?

- Compass points are never capitalized in standard English writing.
- A compass point is capitalized only when it names a specific geographical location.
- Compass points are capitalized only when they appear at the beginning of a sentence.
- Compass points are always capitalized regardless of context.

Definition 3 of 20

Statue of Liberty, Empire State Building, Earth.

- Examples of capitalization of general locations.
- Examples of common nouns for buildings.
- Examples of capitalization of specific places.
- Examples of proper nouns for historical events.

Term 4 of 20

What is the rule for capitalizing articles in titles?

- Capitalize all articles in titles.
- Capitalize articles only when they are the last word in a title.
- Capitalize articles only when they are the first word in a title.
- Capitalize articles only when they are the first or last word in a title.

Term 5 of 20

When should you capitalize the names of specific groups?

- Do not capitalize the names of specific groups.
- Capitalize the names of specific groups only if they are famous.
- Capitalize all specific groups, even if they are not well known.
- Capitalize the names of specific groups only if they are political.

Term 6 of 20

What is the capitalization rule for trademarks?

- Capitalize the names of holidays.
- Capitalize the names of all generic products.
- Capitalize the names of trademarks.
- Do not capitalize the names of trademarks.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Term 7 of 20

What is an example of an exclamatory sentence?

- ○ The meeting is scheduled for three o'clock.
- ○ He is a very talented musician.
- ○ What an unusual day this is!
- ○ Could you please pass the salt?

Term 8 of 20

What is the capitalization rule for initials in names?

- ○ Capitalize only the first initial of a person's name.
- ○ Initials in names are never capitalized.
- ○ Capitalize each part of a person's full name, including initials.
- ○ Capitalize initials only when they are part of a company name.

Definition 9 of 20

The most popular color this fall is rust. This book is about a girl who travels in the summer.

- ○ Examples of seasons in sentences.
- ○ Examples of verbs indicating travel.
- ○ Examples of nouns referring to weather.
- ○ Examples of adjectives describing colors.

Term 10 of 20

Example of a title used as an appositive.

- ○ Margaret Rose Windsor.
- ○ Doctor, Professor, Mister, Reverend.
- ○ Charles, Prince of Wales, has arrived.
- ○ French, History 3A, Math 203.

10 Matching questions

11-20 of 20

How should the title of a course be capitalized?	A. Capitalize the title when used in direct address.
When are the words 'god' and 'goddess' capitalized?	B. Capitalize references to religions, deities, and religious scriptures.
What is an example of an imperative sentence?	C. Bow deeply when introduced to the Queen.
When should seasons be capitalized?	D. Capitalize the names of specific events and periods of time.
What is an example of a geographical name?	E. Seasons are not capitalized unless they are part of a title.
When do you capitalize the first word in a sentence?	F. I watched the clock while I waited for you.
How should titles be formatted in direct address?	G. They are not capitalized when referring to ancient mythology.
When should religious references be capitalized?	H. Capitalize the title of a course when it is mentioned.
Provide an example of the word 'I' used correctly in a sentence.	I. Avenue of the Americas.
What must be capitalized in names of specific events?	J. Capitalize the first word in declarative, interrogative, imperative, and exclamatory sentences.

LIVEWORKSHEETS