

LEXICAL TEST

FAMILY AND RELATIONSHIPS

Student's Name: _____

Date: _____

Part 1: Family Members

Complete the sentences with the correct family words.

1. A person who has no brothers or sisters is an o_____ c_____.
2. If your son gets married, his wife becomes your d-i-l_____.
3. Your grandmother's mother is your g-g_____.
4. Your uncle's or aunt's children are your c_____.
5. Your brother's or sister's daughter is your n_____.
6. If your father remarries, his new wife is your s_____.
7. If you have a male child, he is your s_____.
8. Your uncle is married to your a_____.
9. If your sister has the same mother as you but a different father, she is your h-s_____.

Part 2: Stages of Life & Collocations

Match the verbs (1-10) with the correct words (a-j) to form life stages expressions.

- | | |
|-------------|----------------------|
| 1. graduate | a) a job |
| 2. pass | b) married |
| 3. get | c) a house |
| 4. get | d) from work |
| 5. leave | e) from university |
| 6. retire | f) born |
| 7. fall | g) a family |
| 8. start | h) in love |
| 9. be | i) home |
| 10. buy | j) your driving test |

Answers: 1. _____, 2. _____, 3. _____, 4. _____, 5. _____, 6. _____, 7. _____, 8. _____, 9. _____, 10. _____

Part 3: Family Celebrations & Holidays

Write the name of the holiday or celebration described below.

It's celebrated on the last day of the year. →

It's celebrated on 31st October in the USA, Britain, and Canada. Children dress up as ghosts and witches.

→

It's a day when children give their dads presents and cards. →

It's celebrated on 24th December. →

It's a party given for a woman who is having a baby, where friends bring presents. →

It's an American celebration in autumn where families eat a special meal including roast turkey. →

It's a holiday when people in some countries give and receive chocolate eggs. →

Part 4: Relationship Phrasal Verbs & Vocabulary

Fill in the blanks with the correct words or phrasal verbs from the box. Change the form of the verb if necessary.

fall out with

get together

get on with

make up

get into take after look up to date

jealous

break up

fall in love

relationship

friendship

1. I really my older brother because he is honest and always helps me.
2. It is easier to with somebody by phone or email if you don't want to look them in the eye.
3. To have a happy, you should avoid arguments and conflicts with your partner.
4. She her mother; they both have the same beautiful smile and calm character.
5. Do you ever your friends and stop talking to each other after a disagreement?
6. The perfect place for a first is a park or a cozy cinema.
7. We usually as a whole family during the weekend to have dinner.
8. If your boyfriend or girlfriend gets angry when you talk to other people, they are probably
9. It isn't a good idea to somebody who is much younger than you.
10. To build up a true, you must always try to understand your friend.
11. How often do you an argument about politics with your family members?
12. Try not to at first sight — it's romantic, but it isn't very wise.

13. They had a big fight, but I think they will quickly and become friends again.

Part 5: Spending Time Together

Complete the phrases with the correct verb: play, go, hang, text, visit, chat, eat, rent, work. (Some verbs can be used more than once).

- send messages
- each other at home
- out (e.g. in the gym)
- out at the shopping centre
- into town
- out (e.g. in a café or restaurant)
- online through Skype / Zoom
- on the games console
- out of town
- a DVD or Blu-ray