Imperatives

Type	Rule	Example
1. Affirmative [+]	Base Verb	You open the door. ➔ Open the door. You are on time. ➔ Be on time.
2. Negative [-]	Don't + Base Verb	You don't run. ➔ Don't run. You are late. ➔ Don't be late.

Part A: Circle the correct answer.

1. (Close / Closing) the window, Owen.
2. (You not listen / Listen) to the teacher, boys.
3. (Not shout / Don't shout) in the classroom.
4. (Don't run / Doesn't runs) in the hallway, Zoe.
5. (You quiet / Be quiet) in the library.
6. (Don't be noisy, / Not noisy,) boys.

Part B: Turn the sentence into an Imperative.

1. You wash your dirty hands. ➔ _____.
2. You are nice to your friends. ➔ _____.
3. You don't touch the hot oven. ➔ _____.
4. You are kind to the puppy. ➔ _____.
5. You open the door, please. ➔ _____.
6. You don't be late for class. ➔ _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS