PART 1 - 📖 READING
MY SHOPPING DAY

Last Saturday, I went to the mall with my sister, Mia. We wanted to buy some new clothes and spend some time together. I needed a few things for an upcoming school trip. First, we visited a sports store. I tried on several pairs of sneakers before finding a pair that felt really comfortable. Then, I saw a blue hoodie that was warm, soft, and perfect for cooler weather. I liked it immediately, so I decided to buy both the sneakers and the hoodie.

After that, we went to another store because Mia needed an outfit for our cousin's birthday party. She spent a long time looking at different dresses and asking for my opinion. Finally, she chose a beautiful green dress that looked great on her. She also found a small black bag that matched the dress perfectly.

By lunchtime, we were tired and hungry, so we stopped at a café for a snack. While we were eating, we talked about our new clothes and laughed about how long it had taken Mia to choose a dress. We agreed that shopping is much easier when you know exactly what you need.

Before going home, we checked our shopping bags one last time to make sure we hadn't forgotten anything. I was happy with my new sneakers and hoodie, and Mia was excited to wear her new dress to the party.
