

Deciding on a shopping list

 Read the dialogue and fill in the gaps with some, any, little or few. Then listen and check.

Ann : The kitchen cupboards are empty.

We need to go to the supermarket.

Bill : OK. Let's make a shopping list.

Ann : Alright. Check the fridge first.

Bill : There isn't 1) any milk and there's very

2) little cheese.

Ann : So, two cartons of milk and half a kilo of cheese. Do we need 3) any yoghurt?

Bill : No, we have two pots. But we need

4) some eggs. There's only one left.

Ann : OK, then. One box of eggs. How about fruit?

Bill : Well, there are very 5) few apples.

Ann : OK. We'll get six of them. Now look in the top cupboard. Is there 6) any sugar?

Bill : There's one bag, but there isn't 7) any coffee.

Ann : OK. One jar of coffee.

Bill : Also add a packet of spaghetti. There isn't

8) any and a tin of pineapple slices.

Ann : OK. Is there anything else we need?

Bill : We need 9) some bread. There's very

10) little left.

Ann : Brown or white?

Bill : Brown. Oh, yes, add 11) some soap too.

Ann : A loaf of bread then and a bar of soap.

Bill : I think that's all we need. Let's go
