

Direct Speech to Indirect Speech

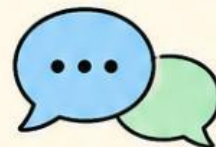

Instructions: Change the following sentences from Direct Speech into Indirect Speech.
(Assume the reporting verb is in the past tense, so Present Tenses change to Past Tenses.)

Example:

Direct: Tom said, "I play football every day."

Indirect: Tom said that he played football every day.

1. John said, "I study English every night." → _____
2. Mary said, "I am happy today." → _____
3. Tom said, "I like chocolate." → _____
4. Susan said, "I am reading a novel." → _____
5. Peter said, "I live in Bangkok." → _____
6. Anna said, "I have finished my homework." → _____
7. David said, "I go to school by bus." → _____
8. Lisa said, "I am cooking dinner now." → _____
9. Jack said, "I watch television every evening." → _____
10. Jenny said, "I have known him for five years." → _____
11. Mike said, "I play the guitar." → _____
12. Sarah said, "I am waiting for my friend." → _____
13. Ben said, "I work in a hospital." → _____
14. Emma said, "I have lost my key." → _____
15. Tony said, "I drink coffee every morning." → _____
16. Kate said, "I am writing an email." → _____
17. Robert said, "I teach mathematics." → _____
18. Nina said, "I have visited Chiang Mai many times." → _____
19. Mark said, "I clean my room every weekend." → _____
20. Helen said, "I am learning Japanese." → _____

