7 Read the text and match people who want to celebrate their birthday with the most suitable festivals (A–D). One festival is suitable for two people.

1 Nurlan likes dancing and partying. His birthday is in March, but he is too busy then. He would like to do something in the summer. ___

2 Petro celebrates his birthday in the summer. He's very a very quiet, peaceful person who doesn't like staying up late. ___

3 Matilde loves extreme sports and trying new experiences. She would like to go to the countryside. She isn't afraid of being high up. ___

4 Igor's birthday is in the spring. He loves late nights, wearing special clothes and being with lots of different people. ___

5 Alexia normally has a big party for her birthday, but she wants to do something else this year. She loves waking up early and taking photos of beautiful places. ___

A Cappadocia Balloon Festival, Turkey
If you're a fan of adventure and fantastic scenery, the Cappadocia Balloon Festival is ideal. The festival is celebrated in July, when the weather is perfect. You will go for a ride in a hot-air balloon above this amazing landscape in central Turkey. You will see the mountains, which look amazing in the early morning. At night, you and your friends will eat a meal of meat and fish.

B Carnival of Venice, Italy
The Carnival of Venice in February or March is perfect for people who want to enjoy themselves… a lot! Thousands of people come to the city, where they get together with friends and family to dance, stay up late and have a good time. The masquerade balls are so much fun and the costumes are amazing.

C Corso of Lavender, France
This is for people that are crazy about a peaceful way of life. It celebrates lavender, which is a type of plant whose flowers smell beautiful. This is a traditional festival, which has been celebrated in the French town of Digne in July for almost one hundred years. During the festival there is a ceremony when people dress up in purple and walk around the town. They give people presents and eat traditional food.

D New Year's Eve in August, Spain
